Wednesday, 9 December 2020

1:00 – 1:15 pm Welcome: Introduction by Co-chairs' offices

1:15 – 3:00pm Session 1: Global Partnership Monitoring Reform – The New Monitoring Proposal

Objective: Update since last Steering Committee meeting on reform of the framework and process ; discussion of the Co-Chairs' proposal for an approach to develop a new monitoring proposal that is stakeholder-led, inclusive, informed and responsive to systemic issues; agreement on next steps and roles of Steering Committee members and their constituencies.

3:00 – 4:00pm Session 2: Delivering the Work Programme – The run-up to the HLM

Objective: Joint reflection on experiences to-date related to work programme implementation, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic; 'foundational elements'; synergies across action areas; and linkages to the monitoring reform. This will include discussion of how the Steering Committee can help deliver and promote substantive products and advocacy, outreach and learning opportunities across the work programme's action areas to engage key actors in the run-up to the next HLM.

Thursday, 10 December 2020

1:00 – 1.45pm Session 3: Launching 'Action Dialogues 2021'

Objective: Discussion and launch of the 'Action Dialogues 2021' initiative to foster political engagement of stakeholders at country level, and gather evidence on the state of effectiveness at country level to inform the next HLM; call to action for Steering Committee members and their constituencies to engage in this process.

1.45 – 3:45pm Session 4: Building Political Momentum on Effectiveness for the next HLM

Part I: The Global Partnership review

Objective: Agreement on next steps and way forward for the monitoring reform and how to harness action areas to mobilise key actors for the next HLM (part recap of day 1); Discussion of the Co-chair's proposal for the Global Partnership Review, including political considerations and process, and how the Steering Committee can utilize the review to engage stakeholders and help deliver the next HLM.

Part II: Ambitions and building blocks

Objective: Building on previous session, brainstorm – with inputs from different constituencies – on a shared vision of political outcomes and deliverables for the next HLM, and the roles Steering Committee members can take to support this and align on-going work behind this ambition.

3:45 – 4:00pm Closing: Outlook for 2021

Objective: Outline tentative plans for activities for the first half of 2021 and concluding remarks
