

What does the exercise monitor?

The Global Partnership's monitoring framework tracks development stakeholders' progress in aligning their policies and practices with four internationally agreed development effectiveness principles. Specifically:

Focus on results

Development efforts must have a lasting impact on eradicating poverty and reducing inequality, and on enhancing developing countries' capacities, aligned with their own priorities.

Indicator: Countries strengthen their national results frameworks (1b)

Indicator: Development partners use country-led results frameworks (1a and SDG 17.15)

Ownership of development priorities by developing countries

Partnerships for development can only succeed if they are led by developing countries, implementing approaches that are tailored to country-specific situations and needs.

Indicator: Development co-operation is predictable: annual predictability (5a)

Indicator: Development co-operation is predictable: medium-term predictability (5b)

Indicator: Quality of Countries' Public Financial Management Systems (9a)

Indicator: Development partners use country systems (9b)

Indicator: Aid is untied (10)

Inclusive development partnerships

Openness, trust, mutual respect and learning lie at the core of effective partnerships, recognising the different and complementary roles of all actors.

Indicator: Quality of public-private dialogue (3)

Indicator: Civil society organisations operate within an environment that maximises their engagement in and contribution to development (2)

Transparency and accountability to each other

Mutual accountability and accountability to the intended beneficiaries of development co-operation, as well as to respective citizens, organisations, constituents and shareholders, is critical to delivering results. Transparent practices form the basis for enhanced accountability.

Indicator: Transparent information on development co-operation is publicly available (4)

Indicator: Mutual accountability among development actors is strengthened through inclusive reviews (7)

Indicator: Development co-operation is included in budgets subject to parliamentary oversight (6)

Indicator: Countries have systems to track and make public allocations for gender equality and women's empowerment (8 and SDG 5c)
