GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP: TRANSFORMING THE WAY WE WORK TOGETHER

With only halfway to go till we reach the 2030 deadline and with overlapping challenges and crises, we must strengthen political momentum for and champion development co-operation that is country-owned, focused on results, inclusive, and transparent and mutually accountable – the four principles of development effectiveness. By bringing diverse development actors together on the basis of a principle-led approach, the Global Partnership fosters trust and policy action in countries. It provides new and relevant evidence that empowers country-level actors to understand and tackle challenges towards better development co-operation.

WHY PHILANTHROPY?

International and local philanthropic organizations are important players when it comes to addressing current challenges across sectors and regions in developing countries.

Local philanthropy is critically important to build trust amongst partners and mobilise domestic and international giving to sustain local ownership of development.

HOW? PHILANTHROPIC ORGANIZATIONS ARE UNIQUELY POSITIONED TO:

- Activate country networks including working with governments, to build effective partnerships with all stakeholders at country level.
- Use the effectiveness principles to align to country and global development priorities, being transparent, inclusive and accountable, and focusing on results and impact.
- Make available innovative avenues for co-operation at the country level — providing alternative sources of financing, sharing experiences and networks, to better respond to pressing challenges.
- Showcase successful partnerships to face global challenges through connecting civil society, governments and the private sector, and embracing different approaches to effective development co-operation.

REACH OUT TO YOUR REPRESENTATIVE & BE PART OF CRITICAL DISCUSSIONS:

Raise the profile of philanthropy to scale up effective, trust-based, multi-stakeholder partnerships with governments and other development actors.

Increase representation of the philanthropic organizations in international fora to increase alignment with countries' priorities.

Engage in open discussions at the highest level to build enabling environment for philanthropies to engage in partnerships across sectors to tackle real-time challenges with innovative approaches.
